NJMC Extends Flyway Gallery Nature Photography Exhibit

LYNDHURST, N.J. – The New Jersey Meadowlands Commission is proud to announce the extension of “When Dreams Whisper,” an exhibit by nature photographer Hildi Borkowski, at the Flyway Gallery in the Meadowlands Environment Center. The show opened on June 30 and will now close on August 31.

A lifelong Bergen County resident and extensive traveler, Borkowski sees “When Dreams Whisper” as a pictorial essay that takes the viewer on a journey through the changing seasons from points near and far. Her subjects include breathtaking sunsets, delicate flowers and butterflies and tranquil ocean vistas.

“When I walk along a beach or through a wooded path, every sense works in harmony with each other,” Borkowski says. “If we recognize the beauty that surrounds us, nature is rejuvenating.”

Borkowski’s work has been exhibited in several venues in and around Bergen County and has been recognized by the New Jersey State Federation of Women’s Clubs. She began taking photos more than 30 years ago, and this hobby evolved into her passion.

The Flyway Gallery was created by the NJMC to help foster the cultural identity of the 14-town Meadowlands District by providing a space to showcase the talent of local artists. The gallery is open from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday and 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. Saturday and Sunday. For information, please call (201) 460-8300 or visit www.njmeadowlands.gov/ec.
